

Non-fiction for teens and adults

These books do not represent the views and opinions of those in Mayflower 400, but are to provide readers with a range of interpretations.

Strangers and Pilgrims – Jeremy Bangs

Indian New England before the Mayflower – Howard Russell

Memory's Nation: The Place of Plymouth Rock – John Seelye

The Pilgrims and Pocahontas: Rival Myths of American Origin – Ann Abrams

Saints and Strangers – George Willison

New England Frontier: Puritans and Indians 1620-75 – Alden T Vaughan

New England Bound: Slavery and Colonization in Early America – Wendy Warren